CAPTURED BOY BURGLAR Confesses More Thefts to Police

TOMALTY IS OUT OF JAIL

BAIL WAS REDUCED TO $7500 BY AUTHORITIES

This Action Is Taken Because of the Man's Health --His Faithful Wife Has Remained at His Side in Jail.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 30.—Broken down in health and strength and tottering on the verge of insanity as the result of long days and nights spent in mental anguish in a prison cell, the pitiable condition of James C. Tomalty made such an impression upon District Attorney Langdon this morning that he consented to a reduction of bail and about noon the jail doors swung open and, accompanied by his wife, the young bookkeeper received his liberty.

Tomalty was much quieter last night than he was on Wednesday, probably owing to the fact that his faithful wife stayed by his side in the women's ward in the city prison throughout the night, soothing him and comforting him in his delirium.

LANGDON'S VISIT.

Hearing that the prisoner was in a serious condition, District Attorney Langdon called at the jail at 10 o'clock this morning and was horrified to find the change that one week could make in the condition of a usually robust man.

He immediately went to Judge Canby's court and made a motion cutting Tomalty's bail exactly in half.

"If your honor please," said the district attorney, "I have just been to visit James C. Tomalty, and I find his condition so serious that I believe further imprisonment will be extremely

S. F. PLANT DESTROYED BY FIRE

AMERICAN CAN CO.'S FACTORY IS BURNED

Three Firemen Seriously Injured by Blazing Wall Which Falls on Them While at Work.

(Special to The Tribune.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 30.—The large plant of the American Can company, located at Nineteenth street and Treat avenue, which gives employment to upwards of two hundred people and which is valued at about $200,000, was almost completely destroyed by a fire which broke out at 2:40 o'clock this morning and which caused the injury of three firemen.

The injured are: Charles E. Dougherty, No. 7 truck, lacerated wound over right eye; Joseph Quinlan, No. 7 truck, incised wound of the right hand; George Spellman, No. 10 engine, contusion of the right side and lacerated wound of the right hand.

The cause of the blaze is not known, but it originated in the factory building and quickly spread to the warehouse. A watchman who was on duty, turned in an alarm and when the first apparatus arrived on the scene two second alarms were sounded. The firemen worked hard in their efforts to save the buildings, but the warehouse was completely burned to the ground, and the factory damaged almost beyond repair.

The three firemen who were hurt were struck by a blazing wall, largely composed of corrugated iron, which suddenly fell where they were working. All were treated at the Central Emergency hospital.

STATE SUES CHAS. A. BANTEL

STATE CONTROLLER FILES COMPLAINT TODAY

Tomalty's Name Not Mentioned in Papers--Suit Is to Recover $14,162.98 in Taxes Alleged to Be Stolen.

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 30.—The state of California, through State Controller A. B. Nye today filed a suit in the county clerk's office against former City Treasurer Charles A. A. Bantel of San Francisco and his bondsmen, the Anderson and Company, for the recovery of the $14,162.98 in taxes which he is alleged to have stolen from the city of San Francisco. The papers in the action were filed this morning by Attorney General U. S. Webb.

No allusion is made to Tomalty in the complaint, the allegations merely stating that the State has demanded a sum and has been refused it by City Treasurer John E. McDougall, who claims he was never given the money when he succeeded Bantel in office last January. The $14,162.98 in taxes collected in the United Railroad property and was paid over to Bantel when he succeeded McDougall in office in January, 1908.

OLD MOTHER IGNORANT OF HIS CRIMES

Mystery of Several of Recent Crimes Cleared Up.

Rivals "Baby John" as a Precocious Youth in Crime.

"I turned burglar because the excitement of the game appealed to me and for the reason that it seemed like an easy way to make a living. My widowed mother, with whom I lived at 660 Twenty-fifth street, did not know that I was a criminal in constant danger of arrest."

In these words, nineteen-year-old Thomas Fitzgerald, a daylight burglar, who has caused uneasiness throughout the residence section of the city for the past six weeks and who was arrested yesterday afternoon by Detectives Holland and McSorley, admits that he is a thief.

Becomes Bolder

There is nothing of romance attached to Fitzgerald's acts; nothing which would appeal to the lovers of the sensational. He has been a sneak thief according to his own admissions for the better part of his young life, and through the fact that he had escaped detection he became bolder and bolder until his utter carelessness of capture and probable indifference to what was in store for him, caused him to walk into the outstretched arms of the law.

Fitzgerald was captured as he was leaving the home of Mrs. M. J. Ayers, 1678 Waverly street, with a bundle of stolen property under his arm. He offered no resistance to arrest. He willingly went with his captors to police headquarters and there laughingly said that he had committed two burglaries in the recent past. He denied that he had committed other crimes, but gradually he made admissions and cleared up the mystery surrounding the theft of valuables from at least seven homes throughout the city.

Detective Tells of Talk With Mrs. Martin in Jail

Next in importance to the testimony of "Baby" John Martin, for the prosecution, in the case before Judge Wells in the Superior court, of Isabella J. Martin, who is charged with dynamiting the home of Judge Ogden in this city, was that of Detective St. Clair Hodgkins of this city, who was on the stand today and a part of yesterday.

Hodgkins has known the defendant for years, and "Baby" John since he was a child. It was he who accompanied the present District Attorney Donahue, in February last, when he was deputy district attorney, to Weaverville for the purpose of inquiring into the woman's connection with the dynamiting of the Ogden home, under the charge of "Baby" John.

INTERVIEWS WOMAN.

Hodgkins had a number of interviews with Mrs. Martin in Trinity county jail, as did also Donahue. The woman denied all knowledge of (Continued on Page 2.)

REAL ESTATE DEALERS ENJOY GERMAN LUNCH

ELMHURST, Oct. 30.—A number of real estate men of this place enjoyed an old fashioned German lunch together yesterday in the Jolly Restaurant, on East Fourteenth street. Speeches, political and otherwise, were delivered by Philip Riley, F. J. Wallace, F. S. Moorman, H. Magnusson and others. The affair was voted a success by those partaking of the repast.

UP-TO-DATE REMODELING OF MELROSE BUILDING

MELROSE, Oct. 30.—The building occupied and owned by John Aueon on East Fourteenth street and Seminary avenue is being remodeled at a considerable cost. The building has been shingled on the exterior, and will be painted. Hardwood floors have been put in, and no expense is being spared to make the place attractive and up-to-date. Two hundred and fifty feet of cement sidewalk surrounding the property has lately been laid, and grass will be planted in the near future. Aueon believes this section of the county will grow rapidly during the next few years, and is acting as a convict.

WOMAN IS DARING THIEF

ROBS S. F. STORE IN BROAD DAYLIGHT

(Special to The Tribune.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 30.—Dressed in the deepest black, but with garments of an expensive and costly material, her demeanor indicating that she was a woman of refinement, and not like the ordinary thief a clever shoplifter, or more properly, burglar, succeeded in robbing the millinery store of Mrs. Sallie Leon, 715 Van Ness avenue, in broad daylight yesterday afternoon. She stole a paradise bird, valued at $15.

The thief was detected just as she was making her escape, and for three blocks Mrs. Leon pursued her bareheaded, through the streets, but the fugitive followed the side streets, and by a clever maneuver eluded her pursuer.

Young Murder Trial Goes Over

(Special to The Tribune.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 30.—Owing to the closeness of election day, the murder trial in which Thomas O. Young is defendant, was continued in Judge Dunn's court this morning until November 12. ## MOB SHOOT MURDERER DOWN

ATTACKED THE JAIL AND FIRST TRIED LYNCHING

KINGSTON, Tenn., Oct. 30.—A mob of thirty masked men attacked the Roane county jail early today and killed George Cook, held on the charge of murdering John King, a ferryman. The identity of none of the mob is known. It is presumed the men intended to hang Cook, as they had a rope in their possession. When his cell was reached he offered resistance and produced a razor with which he cut one of the men in the mob. This, it appears, enraged the invaders, and Cook was quickly shot dead.

Governor Patterson will be asked to offer a reward for the apprehension of members of this mob.

DRINK, DESPAIR, CAUSE SUICIDES

Two Despondent Men End Trouble by Poison, One Analyzed, Other Drunkard

Paul S. Hurley, a well-known druggist, buried the door of his bedroom in his home at 212 Wood street again possible intention and took a dose of cyanide of potassium.

Hurley, who was 40 years of age, was killed by his wife, who had been drinking heavily. The business did not help matters. He had not complained of despondency, but did he, aside from usually leaving drinking, show any signs of despondency. He is survived by the widow and a daughter, 15 years of age.

Reading that his inefficiency in the office had caused the loss of his position, Hurley, who was 40 years of age, took his life by inhaling cyanide gas. Besides the widow and three children, he leaves a brother, H. H. McPeck, who lives with their aged mother in Joliet, Ill.

DETECTIVE TELLS HOW HE "TANGLED" MRS. MARTIN

the blowing up of the Ogden home, and declared that "Baby" John could have had nothing to do with it.

Detective Hodgkins Tells of Talk With Woman

Assistant Chief Engineer McDonald of the Fire Department of this city was on the stand in the Martin trial yesterday when the prosecution went to press.

Mrs. Martin testified to practically the same condition of affairs referred to by Chief Ball. He and his principal had been called to the home of Mrs. Martin. The latter directed the witness to the back stairs and there McDonald saw a can containing a black liquid, like tar. Hanging from the can was something about a foot long, which might have been a fuse, but the witness could not tell what it was.

Detective St. Clair Hodgkins testified that he knew the defendant on the 16th of February, 1908.

"Did you see her on that day?"

"I did."

"Where did you see her?"

"At this juncture, Mrs. Martin stood a long pencil and a large pad of yellow paper and with a pen directed toward Hodgkins prepared to take notes."

"In Trinity county jail, Trinity county, California," was the answer.

"Did you see her alone?"

"No, Donahue, present District Attorney of Alameda county was with me."

The witness then testified that he or Donahue had ever offered the woman any inducement to make a statement.

"She said," he continued, "I don't know that I was ever so glad to see anybody as I was when I saw her. I told her that we had been sent up to Weaverville to inquire into the charge of 'Baby' John. She said that she had ordered him to go home and that she would be with him."

"COULD NOT BEAR IDEA OF GUILT."

"She said that she could not bear to think that people would think her guilty of that. She said that she wanted to be taken away from Weaverville, that she was in terror of them and that she was afraid they would poison her."

"BURNED IN TEARS."

Here Mrs. Martin burst into sobs, which were audible all over the court room.

"She also said," continued Hodgkins, "that John could not have blown up the Ogden house, because on the night on which that house was burned John Whitmore of Weaverville was in her house and John was in the kitchen studying his mathematics."

"PERVERT," SAID WOMAN.

"John, she said, was a pervert and he was a liar. John was a degenerate and tried to take her to another place. John, she said, told the doctor that he was a bad boy and that he could not help being bad. She also stated that John had confessed to her that he had burned Alva Loebe's house and that he would like to burn up Leach."

"DID NOT HEAR EXPLOSION."

"She was asked if she had heard the Ogden explosion and replied that she had not. The first time she knew of the explosion was when she read about it in the morning in the Examiner. She could not say whether or not she had read the article before the explosion or whether she had given him the paper to read."

"The witness was then shown some papers on which were obscene sentences formed with display letters from newspaper advertisements. The woman admitted that she had seen them before. Some of them referred to Sheriff Boyce of Trinity county."

"LETTERS DRIVE OUT WOMEN."

"She said that she had seen letters driving out the lobby, as I said yesterday, that there was something unpleasant for ladies to listen to in those documents."

In an instant there was a rustle of skirts and a score of women with bowed heads and flushed faces rushed from the court, leaving only five in the room.

One of these, in the front row of seats in the lobby, looked around as if in surprise at the expeditious manner in which the hearing of fair ones had taken place. The five women who remained did not seem to be in the least annoyed by the reading of some depraved sentiments.

Detective Hodgkins said that he had touched upon the subject of the witness (Hodgins) and that the defendant had told him she had ridden with the hippees for while afterwards in Central Park, New York, and that the last mentioned woman had told her of the alleged immorality which had been practiced in the Ward home in her own family in the past, going the name and relationship of the violators of the moral law and including among them her own (the princess') name.

"WOMEN WITHOUT BLUSHES."

The story was debasing, revealing depravity of the lowest order, but not a woman among those who remained even veiled her face during the recital.

"What else do you remember?" asked Hodgkins.

"BELIEVED JOHN GUILTY."

"She asked me," said Hodgkins, "if I really thought John had blown up the Ogden house."

"And what did you say?"

"I said I thought he did. I said I didn't know how he could know so many details if he hadn't been there."

"Well," said Mrs. Martin, "couldn't he have been there?"

"INCONSISTENCY IN STORY."

"But," I said, "how could he do that when, as you say, he was under your observation all the time?"

"Well," she couldn't say, "he couldn't have taken his legs and added to the same and seen how it occurred." She was satisfied in any way, she said, that John did not have anything to do with it.

This statement was made at the juncture of a preceding statement of Mrs. Martin to Hodgkins, for the reason that in the earlier part of the testimony she had said that she was willing to swear that "Baby" John could not have blown up the Ogden house, and that she was at the time of the explosion, studying his mathematics in the kitchen of the home of the late Judge Ogden.

This inconsistency was noticed by the judge and many eyes sought the features of the witness and her counsel, and it was averted and somewhat satisfied with a flush of embarrassment.

"Did you see her alone?"

"No, Donahue, present District Attorney of Alameda county was with me."

The witness then testified that he or Donahue had ever offered the woman any inducement to make a statement.

"She said," he continued, "I don't know that I was ever so glad to see anybody as I was when I saw her. I told her that we had been sent up to Weaverville to inquire into the charge of 'Baby' John. She said that she had ordered him to go home and that she would be with him."

KNOWLAND AND MELVIN RECEIVE ROUSING CHEERS

Great Demonstration Held in the Old State Capitol at Benicia

(Special to The Tribune.)

BENICIA, Oct. 29.—The old State capitol building was a scene last evening of the largest attended political gathering held in this locality for many years. A huge throng of people, many of whom were Republicans, fully 500 people in all, crowded the lecture hall, all the available seats being occupied while many were obliged to stand during the entire meeting. The enthusiasm displayed demonstrated that there is no apathy in Benicia. Benicia is a town of 200 people, a typical display of perfect, red fire and roman candles.

Early in the evening an informal reception was held at the hotel, affording the citizens an opportunity to meet the speakers. At 8 o'clock the reception committee and speakers, accompanied by the local band, marched to the hall.

SPEAKERS OF EVENING

Judge Henry A. Melvin and Congressman J. H. Knowland were the chief speakers. Hon. Frank R. Davis, now a candidate for the Assembly, was present and both delivered short addresses. C. D. Stevens presided. J. H. Crimin, who was the first speaker introduced, declared that he should cast his vote for Judge Melvin.

Judge Melvin was introduced until the conclusion of his very interesting address he held the close attention of the audience. The speaker was at his best and made a decided hit. While a stranger to most of the people present he made an impression that won him many friends and at the conclusion of the meeting great numbers came forward to express their appreciation.

WELL RECEIVED.

Congressman Knowland was the last speaker and when introduced received a most flattering reception. In speaking of Judge Melvin he mentioned the fact that an excellent Republican National Convention Judge Melvin, who was a delegate at large from the State of California, appeared before the committee on platform and resolutions and used the adoption of a plank against Asiatic immigration. This statement caused a great applause from the many listening men present. Continuing his address Congressman Knowland said: "All sections of the Third Congressional District look alike to me. When the feature of the accountants' reports were made public today. The reports show that $7,451,000, including the floating debt, have been spent in the consolidation of the road and outstanding obligations. This is a total loss and certificate issue of $16,000,000 and other debts amounting to $2,160,000, making a total loss of $19,610,000. The difference between this amount and the money actually expended on the road is $9,750,000. ## JACKSON'S

Also Scores of Others Suffering With Rheumatism, Paralysis, Gall Stones, Hip Joint Disease, Benefitted by Ferdon's European Experts and Bloodless Surgeons.

It seems almost startling in many respects when one considers how much need the Ferdon experts and the treatment of the Medical Experts have performed here in Oakland and California.

Mrs. Fred Loebe has been relieved of over 150 gall stones after only one dose of the Ferdon's preparation. She came all the way from Fresno to consult with the great Ferdon and his European Experts. The doctor in her home could not cure her. "I couldn't locate the trouble," she said in talking to the doctors. "I've spent a great deal of money more than I could really afford to obtain relief. One medicine wanted to spend my money in seeing the doctor, but I objected. I had heard of the great Ferdon and his wonderful results in Los Angeles and had made up my mind to go there and see him when I heard he had come to Oakland."

Mrs. Lucy Tucker, living at 1767 Tenth Street, when interviewed said: "I had suffered with pains in my stomach and liver for several years. I did not sleep and had severe headaches, work and life were a torment. I tried several doctors without any relief. I could not eat, sleep or do any work. I was told I had gall stones. I was given three doses of a powerful medicine, and I am sleeping and relieved of over one hundred gall stones. I am well now and wish to thank Ferdon and his European Experts."

V. H. Harvey of San Francisco, living at 614 Broadway, said: "I had been suffering with gall stones. Most of the doctors here and in the country told me I had gall stones. I had heard of the great Ferdon and his wonderful results in Los Angeles and had made up my mind to go there and see him when I heard he had come to Oakland."

Dr. Harvey examined me, thumped my chest, and told me I had gall stones. I was given three doses of a powerful medicine, and I am sleeping and relieved of over one hundred gall stones. I am well now and wish to thank Ferdon and his European Experts."

Lawyers and Laymen Alike Urge Re-Election of Judge Cook

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 30.—The following circulars are being issued from the headquarters of Judge Carroll Cook, who is a candidate for Superior Judge in this county:

What People Say

When you cast your ballot for Superior Court Judge, be sure that Judge Carroll Cook is one of the four judges for whom you vote.

Votes for a tried, honest, fair and courageous judge, such as Judge Carroll Cook. Twelve years' faithful service to all the people should be rewarded by re-election. Always fearless and fair, is Judge Carroll Cook.

Judge Carroll Cook is controlled by no individual or corporation and is independent of newspaper dictation.

BUT FIVE REVERSALS.

In the hundreds of criminal cases tried before him during his twelve years on the bench but five reversals can be found. Judge Carroll Cook, by his knowledge of law and experience and by his system of handling juries—now adopted in many counties—has saved the taxpayers thousands of dollars.

Twenty-five years' practice as a lawyer enables Judge Carroll Cook to expedite business so that great expense is saved to the taxpayer. Hundreds of lives have been rescued by Judge Carroll Cook from criminal careers. By his policy of probation for youths in first offenses Judge Carroll Cook has made men and good citizens of over 100 per cent of those on whom he exercised his judgment of character.

LABOR LAW DECISION.

The decision rendered by Judge Carroll Cook in sustaining the "Child Labor Law" should not be forgotten. It was the first on the subject and was sustained by the Supreme Court.

The reign of terror created by Stimson and Palmer—the gas pipe thugs—was stopped by Judge Carroll Cook. Among the most dangerous of all criminals, ran rampant until by examples made by Judge Carroll Cook it ceased.

The deposits of the California Safe Deposit and Trust Company should not be forgotten. Judge Carroll Cook for the impartial manner in which he presided over their meetings, and who is now joined with them in a suit against the directors of said bank for the recovery of the money he lost in that institution by reason of its failure.

The foregoing facts and reasons are presented to you on behalf of Judge Carroll Cook by the Non-Partisan Club, organized in February, 1908. All of the members enrolled, numbering over 4000, endorse the above.

WM. GLINDERMANN, President, JOS. P. STEVENS, Secretary.

What Jurors Say

In April last the panel of jurors who had served in Judge Carroll Cook's department of the Superior Court presented him with an elaborately engrossed act of resolutions, as follows: "Whereas, We, the undersigned, the jurors impaneled and sworn in Department No. 13 of the Superior Court, having just completed our statutory term of service; and whereas, after the completion thereof we were discharged from further service, and

"Whereas, During the term of our service we, individually and collectively, have been particularly impressed with the fair treatment accorded not only to the jury, but to counsel, witnesses and litigants whose business called them before said department of the court during such term;

"We, therefore, be it

"Resolved, That in terminating our service, we tender to the Hon. Carroll Cook, the judge presiding in said department, this testimonial of appreciation of his uniform fairness and impartiality in the administration of justice."

BELIEVE WOMAN HAD ACCOMPLICE

Wife of Boston Physician Arrested on Charge of Stealing Valuable Jewelry.

CHICAGO, Oct. 30.—That Mrs. Mahell Dunphy, wife of a Boston physician, charged with stealing jewelry and a valuable paper, valued at $9000, from Charles E. Giles, a wealthy money lender of Dorchester, Mass., had an accomplice, is now believed by the police. While the local authorities acting on the theory yesterday were searching for a man named Cohen, Mrs. Dunphy's arrest in Boston was revealed by the police of this city.

Cohen, described by the Chicago police as a gambler, who formerly knew Mrs. Dunphy in Boston, is said to have been seen in the hotel lobby shortly after the diamonds and the woman disappeared.

BOY BURGLAR

whom a special detail of plain clothes policemen and detectives had secured the city for weeks, for a mere stippling. His face is long and angular, and the lines of his whole makeup. He has large protruding ears, a sign, it is said, of weakness, and yet generosity; his mouth and chin bespeak weakness and his eyes lack the light attendant upon education and refinement. Taken all in all he is a big awkward, ill-advised, self-conscious boy in his "teens, who would rather steal, he says, than work.

From Fitzgerald's confession, it is evident that he has been at the burglary calling for many weeks. Before that time he was content with taking whatever fell into his hands. He admits that he made an entrance to all of the homes he robbed with false keys. The truth of this statement is evident from the fact that he had a large collection of keys in his possession when he was taken into custody.

Articles Recorded

From the home of Mrs. Ayers the burglar stole two pairs of opera glasses, a silver jacket, a long pearl handle for opera glasses, a gold watch and chain, two rings, a stick pin set with blue stones, a gold watch chain and a clothes brush. All of these articles were recovered.

Fitzgerald also confesses to the burglary of the home of A. Johnson, at 419 Cheeswood street, in which it was reported by the victim that $700 worth of property had been stolen. Fitzgerald says he stole merely a watch, a pair of cuff buttons, a ring, an Elks bob and a half filled box of cigars. This property has been recovered and is worth in the neighborhood of $30.

His Other Crimes

Other crimes committed by Fitzgerald were the robbery of the homes of H. M. Wilson at 1877 Waverly street, where a gold watch and bob were stolen; A. Van Euten, 564 Thirtieth street; R. V. Phillips, 131 Athol avenue; V. H. Owens, 1662 Valdez street and a house at 536 Thirtieth street, the identity of the occupants so far being unknown.

Following the arrest and confession of Fitzgerald, the discovery is made that the value of the stolen property was largely exaggerated in many instances, this tending to detract somewhat from the importance of the capture.

Bad Company

Mrs. Mary Fitzgerald, mother of the boy, said this morning: "I believe my son fell into bad company, which led him into temptation. It is his first offense. I have never had any trouble with him before. He has always been a dutiful son."

What Lawyers Say

San Francisco, Cal., October 29, 1908. To the public of San Francisco: The undersigned practicing attorneys of this city, having a full knowledge of the ability and qualifications of the several candidates nominated for the four positions for the Superior Court bench, to be filled at the coming election, desire to heartily endorse the candidacy of Hon. Carroll Cook for one of such positions.

Judge Cook has, with honor to himself and satisfaction of the bar, filled the position for which he has been nominated for re-election for the past twelve years.

ABILITY RECOGNIZED.

His ability as a lawyer is recognized throughout the State. His long experience at the bar prior to his elevation to the bench particularly qualifies him for the position which he so ably fills.

His rulings are always fair and impartial, and for the dispatch of business his department of the court is noted. We sincerely hope that he will be re-elected, and we urge all voters to see to it—no matter who the other three judges may be—that they vote for Judge Carroll Cook as one of the four judges for whom they cast their ballot.

TONES UP THE STOMACH

Get Rid of the Gas, Headaches and Dizziness.

The symptoms of stomach trouble vary. Some victims have a ravenous appetite, some loathe the sight of food. Often there is a feeling as of weight on the chest, a full feeling in the throat. Sometimes the gas presses on the heart and leads the sufferer to think he has heart disease. Sick headache is a frequent and distressing symptom. A very delicate stomach requires easily digested food but nature never intended that the food should be digested before it is eaten. The stomach must be strengthened to perform its own work and what it needs is not food already digested but a tonic. The processes of digestion are controlled by the blood and nerves, and medical science has produced no better digestive tonic than

DIVORCE IS ASKED IN 2 CITIES

FORMER CALIFORNIA
WOMAN FILES SUITS

Daughter of Late Santa Clara County Millionaire Seeks Separation From Chicago
Attorney.

CHICAGO Oct. 30.—Mrs. Sallie Meisenburg Thomas, once a famous belle in St. Louis, Mo., is in Sioux Falls, S. D., to obtain a divorce from Morris St. Paul, Thomas, a prominent attorney of this city. That is the charge he husband made in a crossbill filed yesterday in Superior Court as an answer to a divorce suit which Mrs. Thomas brought here.

Later a dispatch from Sioux Falls stated that Mrs. Thomas her son Carr M. Thomas and her brother Robert Carr Meisenburg, had stopped at a hotel there last Sunday and were supposed to have taken apartments the following day.

Mrs. Thomas is a daughter of the late Otto Meisenburg who died seven years ago in Alameda County having an estate valued at more than $2,000-000 which was distributed in equal parts among his four children.

Meisenburg's father was Carr Meisenburg of St. Louis, one of the best known barons in the west. Otto Meisenburg lived there for many years before coming to Chicago and his daughter was famous for her beauty and wit.

MARRIED AT EIGHTEEN.

She was married to Thomas here
April 27, 1892, when she was eighteen years old. The wedding was one of the most brilliant events of that spring. On June 30, 1900, Mrs. Thomas left Chicago to go to her brother's country home in Southern Wisconsin.

Two months later an attorney called at Thomas' office and informed him that his wife would never live with him again, according to his statement.
It was agreed that the husband should have the custody of the eldest son, Benjamin G. Thomas, now thirteen years old, and that the wife should keep the youngest son, Carr Meisenburg Thomas, now ten years old.

In his case bill Thomas asks for the custody of both children. He says that his wife returned to Chicago late in 1898 and established a separate home where she still maintains.

Upon the death of her father Mrs.
Thomas is said to have received more than $500,000.

P. O. CLERKS REFUSE TO MOISTEN STAMPS

CINCINNATI Oct. 30.—Don't ask the stamp man to lick your stamps.
So runs the slogan posted today in the post office windows of the post office.

"It's this way," said a clerk. "We just haven't got the time to lick all the stamps that people ask us to dampen for them. We are too busy.
For instance, some of the women all tugged out in their flurries and veils buy stamps and then ask us to lick the licking. You see, some of the women are wearing these new tangled veils tied in a cord in knot back of their heads, or under their ears or some place. I do not know exactly where they can get the veils and one to lick the stamps. But I have sworn off licking stamps."

"But you don't really lick the stamps with your tongue even when you have a commodious tongue?"
"Course not. We have dampened sponges for the purpose."

MRS. MORSE GETS ANXIOUS AT MENTION OF RICH WIDOW

THE WIFE OF BANKER MORSE IS TAKING AN ACTIVE INTEREST IN HIS TRAIL, ESPECIALLY AS A RICH WIDOW'S NAME IS MENTIONED.

NEW YORK Oct. 30.—What price per share did you pay for the stock you bought from Carroll? Charles W.
Morse was asked yesterday by his own son, Wallace McFarlane.

"I don't recall it."
"Haven't you any idea?"
"I haven't any definite recollections of the details."

"But don't you remember anything about the transaction?"
"Of course. I recall it having the stock."

That was merely a sample of the strange manner in which the wonderful memory for which the late Mr. Morse was noted in Wall Street fell apart when he was testifying in his own trial in his own trial on the charge of violation of the Federal banking laws.

MRS. MORSE INTERESTED

Another interesting moment came when McFarlane asked Morse what he knew Mrs. Katherine Gish, a former friend of the late Mr. Morse, and after a moment's pause, Morse said that he knew her as a former friend. She was smiling and looking very nervous.
She leaned forward and looked at her husband and then at the witness who was in the witness chair.

Former Berkeley Girl Will Wed a Prominent Kansas City Resident

An announcement that will surprise many Oakland and Berkeley folk is that of the approaching marriage of Miss Lulu Mann of Berkeley and Milton Dodge of Kansas City.

Dodge will arrive in this city on November 4 and the wedding will be celebrated at the home of the bride's parents, in Kenwood, Thursday, November 5, at high noon.

Miss Mann formerly made her home in Berkeley, where she attended the University of California and was a member of the C. C. Tarn House Club.
The young couple have kept their engagement a secret from their many friends, which makes the present announcement all the more complete a surprise.

Dodge will take his bride to Kansas City, where they will make their future home.

Raw Oats Will Do for Horses

Only the kind that is thoroughly steam-cooked is fit for the human stomach. You can boil the "rolled oats" you get at the store for hours but it won't cook it.

H-O is cooked for three hours in steam under high pressure and by a patented process.
You can't imitate the process in your kitchen.
You haven't the cooking machinery. It is the principal reason why H-O is better than every other oatmeal and why everyone is willing to pay a little more for it. It is all nourishment—no hulls, no dirt. Ask your grocer for H-O.

"I want some more."

MRS. ASTOR WAS NEAR TO DEATH

Heart Affection Returns and Prominent Woman Suffers Serious Relapse.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30.—Mrs. William Astor was near to death yesterday. Dr. Austin Flint spent most of the day in attendance.

"Mrs. Astor had a sudden return of an old heart affection about four weeks ago," said Dr. Flint last night. "Since then she has had several attacks of the same nature." She is resting easily.

It is learned that Mrs. Orme Wilson is also suffering from a serious attack of heart trouble, but she is believed to be recovering.

Dr. Flint would not discuss Mrs. Astor's illness, except to tell its character. From a close friend of the physician, however, this statement was obtained:

"Mrs. Astor has been falling gradually for more than a year. During that time she has complained more or less of heart trouble. She has had several sinking spells out of which she has come slowly, little nervous troubles resulting.

"These spells are not to be wondered at, especially as she is sixty-eight years old, and has spent the most of the latter part of her life amidst the night life of society. She was stricken on two days ago, and it was feared for a time that her death was imminent. She has remained in a state more or less comatose, part of which time she has been able to recognize members of her household."

SAYS MARRIAGE WAS NOT LEGAL

Army Surgeon Separated From Wife Eight Years, Asks That Ceremony Be Annulled.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 30.—Dr. George W. Daywalt, surgeon in the United States Army, at present stationed at the Presidio, is seeking an annulment of his marriage to Evangeline M. Geddes, on the ground that the marriage was illegal under California law.

Daywalt was originally married in 1888 to Fannie Harris Delaney. She obtained a divorce from him in 1897, and, according to the law at that time, he could not legally remarry within a year.

He told Judge Moran yesterday that, acting on the advice of an attorney, who declared the law unconstitutional, he remarried five months later. In December, 1897, Judge Moran took the case under submission, but intimated that he would grant the relief sought as soon as certain technicalities had been complied with.

Last year Dr. Daywalt was sued for $500 by his father-in-law, C. B. Geddes, on a claim for board for Mrs. Daywalt during the past two years. His married life with his second wife appears to have been stormy and they have been separated for over eight years.

Daywalt established quite a reputation for skill and daring during the Spanish war when he took the first hospital ship to Manila. Mrs. Daywalt, whose mind became affected at that time, began a suit for maintenance against him in 1899, which was compromised.

UTICA, N. Y.—Miss Gladys Kim, 18 years old, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. C. M. Kimball of Orleans Falls, has mysteriously disappeared from her home leaving a note in which she said she was going far away and it would be useless to endeavor to trace her. Miss Kimball was traced to this city and is believed to have boarded a train here for either Boston or New York.

The police are convinced that she eloped, though the girl's parents refuse to share this view holding the belief that the young woman became suddenly demented the night over study.

DO PRETTY FEET AND ANKLES INSURE A PRETTY FACE?

Does a pretty foot and ankle insure a pretty face? There is an old saying that on or these chains is inviolably accompanied by the other and the adage is certainly quite applicable in the case of a secret of chorus girls. It is one of the musical comedies now going the rounds.

During the summer run of the show at the Illinois theater in Chicago there was much discussion as to which girl possessed the prettiest feet and ankles and the management decided to hold a competition to settle the matter. Sixteen girls were entered and supplied to each seat purchase. A ballot box was continued for two weeks and the results between the girls were as follows: Various feet and ankles were examined and the winner was Miss M. J. Fobgen.

When the vote was counted Miss M. J. Fobgen was found to have the most beautiful feet and ankles. She was awarded the prize of a pair of shoes and a pair of stockings. She was also awarded a pair of shoes and a pair of stockings.

to London, whence came a letter from the mother of Miss Fobgen. There was an enclosure of a pair of shoes and a pair of stockings.

Among such a lot of dainty dainties it is hard to select but I have decided to attempt to give the first prize to the girl who has the most beautiful feet and ankles. I will send her a pair of shoes and a pair of stockings.

LOVE AFFAIR LANDS HIM IN JAIL

BROCKTON, Mass. Oct. 29.—Morton A. Swartz, 21, was arrested by the police of an unfortunate love affair.

Swartz, 21, was arrested by the police of an unfortunate love affair. He was charged with being a suspicious character. Today his father, Louis Swartz, a wholesale drygoods merchant, came here and got him.

Swartz told his father he had left his sweetheart because she was a duce when she told him that she would never marry him and had disapproved of an engagement.

After that, "Dad, I didn't care," he said, "I just started out and walked and walked and finally they arrested me here."

His father says his son does not drink and has no evil habits. The young man will be sent to a hospital to rest up for a few days.

One Pint of Champagne, One Answer in Testifying in Gould Case

NEW YORK.—Elihu V. Sells, a cousin of Mrs. Katherine Gould, testified yesterday before Edward G. Whitaker, a judge in a hearing in the suit for divorce instituted some time ago by Mrs. Gould. Sells is going abroad for six months and Justice Bluff of the Supreme Court ordered the hearing now.

Sells appeared as a witness in the good character of Mrs. Gould. In 1906 after serious illness, Sells was between Mrs. Gould and Mr. Gould. He said he tried to effect an arrangement whereby the Goulds would live together to a definite domestic and property plan. Certain stipulations were laid down by Gould to govern his wife's conduct, but Mrs. Gould refused them.

One of Gould's conditions was that all from the use of intoxicants. On this point, Sells testified that Mrs. Gould, who appeared for Gould, said she had seen how much wine he drank and that she had seen him drink. Sells testified that Mrs. Gould had said she was much as I do, she had said she was a lady's limit. Sells testified that he had seen her drink.

Well, what is a lady's limit? Sells testified that he had seen her drink. Sells testified that he had seen her drink. Sells testified that he had seen her drink. Sells testified that he had seen her drink.

Girls Can't Spoon Over Five Minutes

PENNINGTON, N. J.—Because parents fear that their sons and daughters will be ensnared in Cupid's web, President Frank Moore of Pennington Seminary is making regulations which, he intends, will make future love complications impossible.

Many romantic weddings have resulted from love affairs in the school. One couple went so far as to be married in the woods near the school. Nothing like this again, girls may still smile equanimously at the boys but only platonic love is permitted. Miss L. C. Watts, president of the seminary, has voted to allow the boys to play at real love making in the gymnasium. But the young women will be allowed but a five minute conversation with the young men at this time.

On Saturday evening calls. And if cupid can't make good in five minutes there is no hope of elopement.

NEW YORK — Just married! Clayton Becker—Frank A. M. Sells

Better known as Pete and in passengers please note that they are not neglected.

When Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Becker of Lancaster, Pa. got back from their honeymoon some of their relatives will have a chance to explain how every foot of the wedding trip came to be littered with the above embarrassing announcements. The happy couple reached the New Amsterdam Hotel on Friday last only to find that the matrimonial altar had been invaded by the dodgers with the word to pass them along. He observed indignantly that the guests in the hotel were there with a dagger and a double-barreled gun when Mr. and Mrs. Clayton came through the gate. They took the joke goodly and turned but when each mail brought another lot the bridegroom began to get nervous. His nervousness was so great that sensed when he received a letter telling him that his entire line of match has been purchased. As he had purchased a line of match for his wife and himself there was nothing else to do but go forth and get what was coming to them. They went yesterday and said another part of the announcement.

It is not necessary to give a description of them as one glance at their radiant faces will disclose the fact that they are now one. Every body is invited to step up and kiss the bride and congratulate the groom.

DUALITY

(Edith M. Thomas in "Success Magazine")
Ask any why the music of thy hand
Hath more of plaintive notes than of blithe
And why he saith he is so glad—
Tell him it is because he is so sad—
And this thou knowest! For still he hears
On the high flitting bridge that all must cross,
Ever the dashing of the torrent horse
That takes its way beneath that tottering frail

But if some other ask wherefore thy hand
Hath merry playthings found and sings their song
And wherefore saith he is so glad—
Tell him it is because he is so glad—
This too thou knowest! For still he hears
The spry and sunshiny clothe that torrent horse
With splendor—such the traveler cries for joy
Though the next moment sees him vanished thence!

Breeze Drops His Hat at Girl's Feet; Blue Eyes Do the Rest

CHICAGO.—When the ocean breeze blew off Roy Johnson's hat at Atlantic City last July while he was on a date with Miss Gladys Vera Chapek, 944 East Garfield boulevard Chicago, who with a number of friends was spending the summer at the ocean resort.

As Mr. Johnson started to thank the rescuer of his hat he gazed into a pair of merry blue eyes that almost made him speechless with admiration, which was intensified as the breeze tossed with a few straggling golden locks of her hair.

YOUNG ELOPERS ON WAY HOME ACROSS THE OCEAN

Miss Morgan, 17, and Sweetheart, Outwit Pursuers, but Cannot Wed.

NEW YORK.—Having fled to Atlantic City, Miss Morgan, 17, and her sweetheart, Roy Johnson, 18, are on their way home across the ocean. They were pursued by their parents and other relatives, but they managed to escape.

After a long chase, the young couple were found in Atlantic City. They were taken to their parents' home, but they refused to return. They are now on their way home across the ocean.

It was love at first sight. Mr. Johnson abandoned the automobile trip and remained in Atlantic City. He also abandoned the bachelor club.

In the following days of the summer Miss Chapek and Mr. Johnson in a tiring war, familiar figures as they passed through the streets of Atlantic City. Finally during one of these rides the question was popped by the young man and the ocean breeze wafted back the word "Yes" from the girl's lips.

The next chapter of the romance thus begun is contained in the following paragraph which appeared in yesterday's news.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Chapek, 944 East Garfield boulevard, Chicago, announced the engagement of their daughter, Gladys Vera to Herbert Roy Johnson, 18, of Chicago. The wedding will take place in the spring.

To announce the engagement formally Miss Chapek who is a graduate of the Anna Morgan school of nursing, will give an automobile luncheon at her home this afternoon. Everything will be reminiscent of her first meeting with her fiance and his proposal. An automobile made of flowers and filled with cupid will be the centerpiece on the table. The license tag will be represented by a card bearing the names of Mr. Johnson and Miss Chapek, and on the inside of the service plate will be pasted postcard showing the young couple in an auto.

Mr. Johnson, who is treasurer of the Johnson & Tomke Company, lives at 1073 Warren avenue.

An application for a license to open a tobacco business has been filed in the office of the clerk of the court in New York. The applicant is a man named John Smith.

It appears that some of the present day fashions owe their origin to physical defects. The dandy handkerchief is one of these and a Paris contemporary writes an interesting light on its origin. It appears that a prince of the society in the French capital had a circumscribed growth on his forehead. Whenever a friend gave him a handshake the operation was painful. To prevent this he held his hand horizontally to his forehead.

TAFT ON A TRIUMPHANT TOUR OF NEW YORK

REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE CHEERED

MONSTER MEETINGS ARRANGED FOR HIM

Thousands Greet Nominee in Empire State—Other Candidates Are All Actively Engaged.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30.—Taft and Bryan, leading principal candidates for the Presidency after their almost hand-to-hand struggle last night for the support of Syracuse and Onondaga county, Taft speaking there at two meetings and Bryan at four, parted company today and probably will not again come within point blank range of each other. Taft remains in the hotly contested territory of New York State, Bryan goes on to take a hand in the final fight of the Democrats for the electoral votes of Ohio, Indiana and Illinois.

Bryan traveled today through Ohio, delivering a number of speeches at various places in the home state of his Republican opponent.

Onondaga, Rome, Utica and Bathavia were among the places scheduled for addresses by Judge Taft, with a night meeting at Buffalo. At Utica the Republican Presidential candidate was greeted by James H. Sherman, his running mate. Sherman will speak tonight at Onondaga.

MANY ON STUMP.
John W. Kern, the Democratic Vice-Presidential candidate, continues his tour of Indiana today, which state Bryan expects to reach tomorrow. Indiana also was the center of activity today for E. W. Chaffin and A. S. Watkins, Prohibition nominees for President and Vice-President. Announcement was made this morning that the Independence party campaign will be closed with a big meeting in Brooklyn tonight and another tomorrow night in Carnegie hall, Manhattan.

SUPERVISOR C. L. HORNER.

SECRETARY OF THE GRAND JURY ON STAND

Being Questioned by the Defense for Attorneys Murphy and Newburgh.

(Special to The Tribune.)
SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 30.—The trial of Attorney Frank J. Murphy and A. S. Newburgh, which is now being taken up with a motion to set aside the indictments, was continued before Superior Judge Murasky at 10:15 this morning. Thomas M. Donlon, secretary of the grand jury, was on the witness stand being examined as to whether he had any bias or prejudice against the defendants. He was hammered continually by Attorneys Schlesinger and Ferral and almost every question was objected to by Assistant District Attorney Robert Hamilton, who appeared for the prosecution.

SUPERVISOR HORNER'S RE-ELECTION ASSURED WITH A LARGE MAJORITY

Taxpayers of First District Rally to Support of Popular Official

The canvass which is being made by Supervisor Horner for re-election in the First Supervisorial District is complete, because in every section there is heard an expression of unhesitating loyalty to and support of C. F. Horner, who, for the last eight years, has been the representative of that district in the Board of Supervisors.

There is no talk of making a change in the district because the people of Washington and Murray townships, farmers, horticulturists, grape-growers, cattlemen, merchants, mechanics and laborers, are all practical people. They are level-headed. They believe in letting the office seek the man, and that is what has been done in the case of Supervisor Horner.

Eight years ago the First District wanted a Supervisor and wanted one badly. The Republicans found in Mr. Horner the man for the place. They have found proof of this fact in the years of his unremitting attention to the public needs of the district and no change in the office is desired by them for the reason that Mr. Horner, yielding to the wishes of the people, has consented to serve them for four years more.

In this respect they are joined in a practically unanimous manner by Democrats and the members of other political affiliations who hold efficiency and attention to duty, on the part of an official, to be the criteria by which his worthiness of their confidence should be determined.

During Mr. Horner's incumbency miles of new roads have been built in the district, modern pumping and watering plants have been established, massive and substantial culverts which are indestructible by time or ordinary wear or tear have supplanted rotten, insecure and dangerous frame structures, while enduring bridges of steel and concrete are spanning the streams which run in all directions through the productive country.

In a word, there is now a pleasure in driving through the district, and this feeling with the accompaniment of safety, is shared by the man who hauls his load of products to the depot or the market.

There is no necessity, in a public way, which the district needs which Mr. Horner has not supplied, and the facts will result in the return of Mr. Horner with a rousing vote in all parts of the district on Tuesday next.

VERBAL BATTLE IN THE COUNCIL

Members Argue About Proposed Ordinance Taxing Free Shows.

After a verbal battle in the City Council chambers last night, an ordinance regulating free vaudeville shows, to pay a license of $100 a day was referred by the license committee to the City Council without recommendation.

Managers of local vaudeville houses told members of the committee that since the advent into Oakland of a free show, their receipts have fallen off until there is no profit left. They asked that the ordinance, which is similar to the one adopted at Sacramento, Fresno, Los Angeles, Berkeley and other places, be recommended for adoption.

Attorney Clinton Dodge, for the Novelty theater, and Abraham Cohn of the Bell theater, declared that these houses cannot compete with free shows which do not pay rent and taxes in this city. Representatives from the musicians' union said that unless the present conditions were changed, members of the various orchestras would be laid off.

EAST TWELFTH STREET WILL SOON BE PAVED

Proceedings will be inaugurated immediately by the City Council to pave East Twelfth street from Thirteenth avenue to Twenty-third avenue with asphalt of asphaltic macadam, according to a resolution recommending the work, adopted by the street committee last night. A communication from Street Superintendent Walter C. Howe stated that the street is beyond repair by patching and if paved would relieve the heavy traffic on East Fourteenth street.

TWENTY-SIXTH STREET WILL NOW BE EUGENE

According to a resolution adopted by the street committee of the City Council last night, the name of Twenty-sixth street from San Pablo avenue to Market street will be changed to Eugene street.

LARGE SUM TO SPEND FOR STREET PATCHING

The auditing and finance committee of the City Council last night passed a resolution authorizing the Board of Public Works to spend the sum of $2500 for patching the permanently paved streets.

LAND CHANGES HANDS.

SANTA BARBARA, Oct. 30.—Information of one of the biggest land deals consummated in this county in years came to light through the recording of a deed conveying the Laguna ranch of over 20,000 acres from Louis J. Thompson of England to J. M. Davis of Pasadena. Davis is associated with other Pasadena capitalists in the Laguna Ranch Company, recently incorporated here.

FIND MAN'S BODY.

Detroit, Oct. 30.—The almost nude body of an unknown man, 35 or 40 years old, was found yesterday in a sack bound with ropes and a diving rein in Lamp-ham's lane, Springfield township, near Michigan avenue. ## WANT FREIGHT LINE SHOWN HOLDING UP VOTES AGAINST FRANCHISE

Many Firms Request City Council Committee to Give Company Good Allotment on Wharf.

The Warden-Meeker Company stated, in a communication to the wharves and water front committee of the City Council last night, that the Warden-Meeker Company, which has the use of the wharf at the foot of Franklin street, is furnishing a quick and efficient transportation service and that any check to it would be harmful in checking the growth of many industries.

A letter from Williams Diamond & Co., agents for the American-Hawaiian Steamship Company, asked the Council to favor Captain E. V. Riddout's company.

Another letter from R. F. Schweinh, vice-president of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company, to the effect that the Riddout company is of great service to his company and any favor to the Riddout company would be greatly appreciated.

DOES BIG BUSINESS

J. C. Cantlow, general freight agent of the Pacific Coast Steamship Company, said that his company operating coastwise on the Pacific ocean between Seattle, Alaska, and Albatross, Mexico, and intermediate ports, has connections in Oakland through the E. V. Riddout company and anything the Council could do to improve the facilities for the handling of this business would be greatly appreciated.

A communication was read from the directors of the Merchants' Exchange to the effect that in the allotment of space at the city wharf the Riddout company be not discriminated, for the reason that it has a business that is a great accommodation to shippers.

NO RECOMMENDATION.

Representatives of the Riddout company and the Oakland Transportation Company were allowed to speak for their individual companies.

Charles S. Snook spoke for the Riddout company and Alvin P. Leach for the Oakland Transportation Company. Leach argued that the Riddout company does not need the whole of the wharf and the competition would be a good thing in that the rates would probably be smaller. It was moved and carried that the matter go to the Council without recommendation.

Council Committee Downs Proposed Measure—W. P. Attorneys Denies There is an Agreement.

The resolution introduced by Councilman Jackson, the purpose of which, if adopted, would be to hold up the proposed Western Pacific franchisees now before the Council for amendment, until that corporation has legally and finally settled its contention with the Southern Pacific company as to title to the lands, was placed before the ordinance and judiciary committee for recommendation to the Council, but lost by a tie vote. The matter will be brought up again.

Attorney Snook, a representative of the Western Pacific, was present. He said that the understanding that his company had as to the dredging to be done on the property was altogether different from that as understood by the Council.

DREDGING IN QUESTION.

The dredging in question is a channel twenty-five feet deep on the north side of the proposed Western Pacific mole.

In connection with the Western Pacific waterfront matter, Councilman Oliver Ellsworth presented a letter written to him by Vernon Olney Jr., attorney for the Riddout company. The letter was not read because it was addressed to Ellsworth personally and not to the Council. Councilman Ellsworth then filed the missive with the city clerk, to have it come up before the Council.

worth then filed the missive with the city clerk, to have it come up before the Council.

SAYS NO AGREEMENT.

"In confirmation of our conversation this morning, wherein you told me that it had been publicly stated that there was an agreement between this company and the Southern Pacific company that the latter's right to apply to the United States Supreme Court for a review of the decision of the United States Circuit Court of Appeals in the litigation between the two companies over the Oakland waterfront should be kept open, I desire to say that there is no such understanding and that if the city authorities desire it we are ready to notify the Southern Pacific company that its time to make such application to the United States Supreme Court will not be further extended, in view of the fact that it will be necessary for the Pacific company either to apply to the Circuit Court of Appeals or to the Supreme Court."

QUICK OPTICAL REPAIRS

We call attention to the facilities we possess for promptly repairing glasses. We have seven factories in this State equipped with modern machinery, and are able to turn out the most complicated lens on very short notice.

We have special men whose duty it is to take charge of repairs and see that they are completed in advance of all other work, so that customers may be deprived of their glasses for as short a time as possible.

Except in those instances where we have to specially melt glass we can complete repairs the same day that the order for them reaches us.

To insure safe transit we use a special mailing box, and upon request we will send you one to keep on hand ready to mail to us should accident occur to your lenses.

TWO STRICKEN BY DEATH ON STREET

B. Haverley, Supposed Famous Minstrel, and F. B. Houghton Expire in S. F.

(Special to The Tribune.)
SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 30.—Bert Haverley, supposedly of Haverley's minstrels, which toured the country for several years, and became famous as clever entertainers, dropped dead at 3 o'clock in the morning in the Auto saloon, Fillmore and Golden Gate avenues.

Haverley has been drinking heavily of late and continually complaining of ill health. While standing at the bar in the saloon he suddenly dropped to the floor dead. He has a son somewhere in this city and a mother in Revere, Mass. He was 52 years old.

FORMER OFFICIAL DIES.
SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 30.—Frank H. Houghton, formerly a deputy county clerk, who resided at 763 Howard street, died suddenly on the street at 5 o'clock this morning and was discovered by Policeman J. J. Tillman lying on the sidewalk.

Complaining of severe pains, Houghton awoke about 4:30 o'clock and told the other members of his family that he was going out to get whisky. He stayed for a moment in the saloon at Third and Howard streets and nothing more was seen of him until he was picked up by the patrolman.

MISTAKES POISON FOR BOTTLE OF MEDICINE

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 30.—Henry Hansen, a clerk, residing at 60 McLoa Court, had a narrow escape from death at an early hour this morning, through taking a large dose of iodine, which he mistook for laudanum.

Under the direction of a physician, Hansen has been taking the laudanum for stomach trouble, and in the darkness this morning he secured the wrong bottle and had swallowed a quantity of the burning liquid before noting his mistake. He was taken in an ambulance to the Central Emergency hospital, where the stomach pump was applied and he was quickly relieved.

---after next Monday you'll have a bank account.

Friday evening, October 30, 1908.

It's a great thing to have a bank account!

It makes you feel so safe against unexpected demands for cash and often enables you to save losses or make profits.

It makes a man or woman independent to have a little money in a bank.

You know tomorrow night you'll be getting your salary—now hold on to a part of it (even if you only hold on to a dollar) and start a bank account Monday.

You can come in Monday noon during your lunch hour and we'll fix you up O.K. Bring along whatever you can spare and get a book; then add to it as you can.

The main thing is to get started.

Maybe at first you can't save over $5 a month, but that is $60 a year, and in ten years amounts to quite a little.

So don't hesitate if you have to start small, for you'll be just as welcome as can be, no matter whether you start with $1 or $20.

But whatever you do, don't put it off—make some sort of a start on Monday and the future will take care of itself. The idea is that when you've a little nest egg and a bank book the saving feeling will grow upon you. Try it and see.

APATHY IS SHOWN IN CHINA

SCANT ENTHUSIASM OVER THE U. S. FLEET

Lack of Interest Due to Few Passes Issued to Reception
--Ships Now in Amoy Harbor.

AMOY, Oct. 30.—The Chinese people are apathetic regarding the arrival here today of the second squadron of the United States Atlantic fleet. Only a few natives turned out to witness the arrival of the battleships composing, as they do, the strongest naval force that ever entered this port.

Only 100 Chinese guests will be admitted to the grounds, on which the celebrations planned for the reception of the American officers and sailors, will be held and the resentment at the severe measures taken to exclude the Chinese from participation in the celebration is the cause of apathy shown.

The British Consul has issued a circular stating that the local officials have declined to issue more than sixty passes to the enclosure to British subjects and that in consequence he will refuse to accept a pass.

APPEARED AT 6:30.

The fleet appeared off Tai Tan Island at 6:30 o'clock this morning, having been met ten miles out at sea by the Chinese torpedo gunboat, the Ying, which escorted the ships to their anchorage. The ships entered the harbor in single line, to Louisiana, flagship of Rear-Admiral William H. Emory, commanding, leading, and after forming double line dropped anchor at 9:30 o'clock while the forts on shore and the flagship of the Chinese squadron, the Hai Chi, fired the customary salutes, which were replied to by the American ships.

Directly the ships came to anchor, Captain Patton of the supply ship Calga, which had preceded the squadron, boarded Admiral Emory's flagship, closely followed by the harbor master, Admiral Sah, commander of the Chinese squadron, who boarded the flagship at 10 o'clock, left with Admiral Emory the cards of the Imperial government and Liang Tun-Yen, vice-president of the foreign board of the Imperial representatives sent by the government at Peking to welcome the fleet. Captain Dulwich of the German cruiser Niobe, the only foreign naval vessel in the harbor, also called to pay his respects to Admiral Emory, as did Julian H. Arnold, the American Consul at Amoy.

PATROLS STATIONED.

American patrols have been landed and are stationed on the beach and along the roads. No officers or men will be allowed to enter the native city of Amoy.

The football and baseball teams of the ships which are to play here the final games for the championship of the fleet, for which valuable trophies have been prepared by the Chinese government, are on shore practicing for the games. At 2 o'clock this afternoon, Admiral Emory came ashore for the purpose of calling on Prince Tu Lung and Liang Tun-Yen, the Imperial commissioners, and other

COURT ORDERS SOCIETY NOT TO KILL PET DOG

NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—By the action of Justice Kelly of the Supreme Court, the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals cannot kill dog of Brooklyn's borough president, Mr. S. Coler—not yet. The justice grants an injunction forbidding the animal's execution until the courts shall pass on the case.

Some time ago the dog was seized by an agent of the society in front of the Coler residence, and the society refused to give it up unless the owner paid a fine and took out a license. Coler refused and appealed to court.

In his decision Justice Kelly said: "Grave danger may result from delegating powers to private corporations which belong to public officers. It seems wrong that the plaintiff's dog should be put to death unless he pays the defendant corporation money. I think the case should be tried out before the dog is killed."
